THE NAME

The name is found in many different ways, such as:—

Eppellee, Eppeler, Eppeli, Eply, Eppeler, Eppeler, Eppeli, Ebli, Ebble, Ebly, Ebly, Eppeler, Eppeler, Eppeler, Eppeler, etc.

The name is written today EPPLEY by nearly all the descendants of this line.

Eppli, Epply
or Aepli

COAT-OF-ARMS

In early days warriors wore an armor of steel. Over this armor it was customary to wear a surcoat or jupon, the latter being a sleeveless tunic. On one or the other of these garments was usually embroidered the armorial insignia, which served as a distinctive mark; hence the name "Coat-of-Arms", from this surcoat, comes to mean the representation of the armorial insignia depicted on it. In heraldry, every coat or shield of arms, crest or badge, is attached to the name not the title of the person bearing the right to bear heraldic insignia, also carries with it the right to transmit them. From a very early period arms have been regarded as hereditary possessions.

EXPLANATION

Ever since the First meeting of the Eppley Family as a Clan, the Officers have hoped to be able to gather together the ancestors of George and Jacob Eppley, and that the material collected could be put in some form to preserve it. We knew these two brothers appeared early in York County, but further than that there was no knowledge. However there was a feeling among the members that they should know about their Ancestors, and this stimulated the Historian. There were numerous descendents of these two living in York, Dauphin, Perry and Cumberland Counties and many too that have spread to other States from coast to coast. Nothing indicates that there were great men among them, still there are many for an Eppley to be proud of, as they have always been upright, God fearing, honest men and women, who filled their niche in life as they found it, with courage and ability. We find them in business, professional, public offices and church life, and when their country needed them, they were always ready to serve. Can we ask for anything more? And as we gathered material we found considerable information on our Ancestors and we began to wonder if they really were the earliest of the Family to come to America, for of course we knew nothing on this point, and so we became so interested we thought we would like to know more, and so the search was pushed forward with great success. It was found that this line of Eppleys date back to the EARLIEST arrival who came to America in 1717.

There is much information lacking of the later generations, that we would have liked to have completed before publishing, but have been unable to gain, and as we wish to bring out our little book by our Reunion of 1936 we must not linger longer. Some may look for their family and not find them entered or probably not completed and no doubt they will feel disappointed and probably think they have been neglected but I assure you the Historians have written hundreds of letters requesting you to send in your family data and how have you replied, many of them, not at all. Then too there are many whom we did not know or how to reach them. No one knows the amount of labor connected with trying to gather together the records until you try, but we hope our efforts will be sufficient to at least preserve the Memory of our Ancestors, and in this way show our appreciation of their bravery and sufferings, for many of the blessings we now enjoy to-day, that would not be ours, only for their great effort. — how many of us to-day could do what they did? We are proud of our Ancestors — and we hope we shall live in such a manner that they could be proud of their descendents.

ACROSS THE YEARS

*Across the years we strive to trace
The magic line of life, and place
In order names and dates to show
How each to each is linked, although Divided far by time and space.*

*On pioneers of EPPLEY race,
Who fled what they could not embrace
Of tyrants' rule, honor bestow
Across the years!*

Where Faith and Freedom throve apace;
Their children's children knew the glow
That made this Nation onward grow,
And thrift and wisdom interlace
Across the years.*

EARLY ARRIVALS

To find the actual date of arrival and Ship's name upon which they came if before 1727 is rather difficult, as there are very few listings before this year.

"On September 17th, 1727, Governor William Keith observed to the Council that great numbers of foreigners from Germany, strangers to our language and constitution, having lately been imported into this Province, daily dispersed themselves immediately after landing, without producing any certificates, from whence they came or what they were; and as they seemed to have first landed in Britain, and afterwards to have left without any License from the Government, or so much as their knowledge, so in the same manner they behave here, without making the least application to himself or to any of the Magistrates; That as this Practice might be of very dangerous Consequence, since by the same method any number of foreigners from any nation whatever, as well as Enemies as friend, might throw themselves upon us; The Governor, therefore, thought it requisite that this matter should be considered and 'tis Ordered thereupon, that all masters of vessels who have lately imported any of these foreigners be summoned to appear at this Board, to render an Account of the Number and Character of their Passengers respectively from Britain; that all those who are already Landed be required by a Proclamation to be issued for that purpose, to Repair within the space of one month to some Magistrate, particularly to the Recorder of this City, to take some Oaths appointed by law as are Necessary to give assurance of their being well effected to his Majesty and his government. But because some of these foreigners are said to be Mennonists, who cannot for Conscience sake take such Oaths, that those persons be admitted upon their giving any Equivalent assurances in their own way and manner, and that the Naval Officer of this Port be required not to admit any inward bound vessel to any Entry, until the Master shall first give an exact list of all their passengers imported by them.

In response to this order of the Council the captains of three ships that had just arrived appeared before the Council two days later and handed in their lists of the Palatines whom they had imported. After this one action, however, the order of the Council was apparently forgotten or failed to be enforced. At least there are no more references in the minutes of the Council, which implies that during the next ten years no other captains were required to submit lists. Neither is there any evidence that the proclamation of the Governor was issued or that the subject of immigration excited any more discussion.

This, however, does not mean that no more Germans arrived, for we find they continued to come in constantly increasing numbers. Thousands came in the following ten years of which we have no account. Not until 1727 was there any effort made to have the ships' lists filed. September 14, 1727, Governor Patrick Gordon acquainted the board, that he had called them together and the subject was again discussed, after which an Order was issued that the Masters of Vessels importing them shall take the Names of all these people,..... And further, that a Writing be drawn up for them to sign declaring their allegiance and subjection to the King of Great Britain and Fidelity to the Proprietary of this Province, etc."

EARLY ARRIVALS OF THE NAME OF EPPLEY

(Eppele, Epple, Eppli, etc.)

Jacob Eppele,	Arrived	1717
---------------	---------	------

This is the only one found upon the records before 1727 listings.

The following names were taken from listings in Pennsylvania German Pioneers, by Hinke.

DATE	SHIP	NAME
Oct. 5, 1737	Townsend	Andreas Epple (Andrew Appel)
Feb. 7, 1739	Jamaica Galley	Hans Eppli (Hans Apley)
Nov. 25, 1740	Loyal Judith	Yerick Eply (Johan Jerg Epple)
Sept. 29, 1750	Osgood	Jacob Epele

JACOB EPPLEY

(Jacob Eppeli or Epplee)

The first of the name to arrive in Pennsylvania and Pioneer Ancestor of this branch of the Family.

JACOB EPPLEY, undoubtedly the first of the name to arrive in Pennsylvania, we find recorded in the earliest records spelled with "i" and "ee", thus, "Eppeli" or "Eppelee" or "Epplee", which later spelling was sometimes copied "Eppler". This caused more or less confusion as there were families by the name of Eppler. The name was spelled and misspelled in numerous other ways, but gradually it was spelled Eppley or Epply and has been carried down thus. In fact, nearly all the Eppleys of today write it that way, regardless of how it was spelled originally.

The name of the ship upon which he arrived we have not learned. If the list of the three ships which arrived in 1717 could be found, there is no doubt Jacob Epplee's name would be thereon.

A noteworthy group of Germans arrived in the year of 1717. It was a group of Lutherans, headed by the Rev. Anthony Jacob Henckel and his son-in-law, Valentine Geiger. They arrived on one of the three vessels which reached Philadelphia in September, 1717. On September 19, 1717, "Capt. Richard, Capt. Tower, and Capt. Eyers, waited upon the (Provincial) Board with the List of Palatines they had imported here from London; by which list it appeared Capt. Richard had imported one hundred and sixty four, Capt. Tower, ninety-one, and Capt. Eyers, one hundred and eight."

In 1718, Anthony Jacob Henckel acquired a tract of 250 acres in Hanover township, where numerous members of this group settled. It was through the arrival of the three ships in 1717, upon one of which this group came, that the attention of provincial authorities were first directed to the new-comers.

Jacob Eppley's name appears in a Survey dated 17th April 1719, in which it is written Jacob Eppler (or Epplee) but proved by later deeds to have been same land held by Jacob Eppley. This land was adjoining the New Hanover Church property, a part of that acquired by Anthony Jacob Henkel.

In 1723, he signs a petition for a road from Limerick Township through Falckner Swamp to Oley. He was then located in Falckner's Swamp, and the name is written Jacob Eppeli.

In a deed April 14, 1726, John Henry Sprogell deeds to Jacob Epplee, one hundred and sixty-three acres.

In 1731, he is still an inhabitant of Falckner's Swamp, and was one of those who petitioned for the division of Hanover Township. This would indicate he was settled in that part which was set off into Hanover Township. This is the last date upon which we find his name entered, and his death occurred undoubtedly soon after this, as we find in an old list of the names of Inhabitants of Philadelphia County for 1734, the following entry:

“Wido Apply, 100 acres New Hanover”

Little more is known of Jacob Eppley than this. His parents' name we do not know or date of his birth, but it was no doubt about 1700 and in Germany. His marriage was no doubt in America, but beyond the first name of Eva of his wife we know little more. After his death which occurred between 1731 and 1734, we find that she married Joh Jurg Beck (George Beck) of New Hanover, at some date between 1734 when she is called the widow Eppley and 1743 when Johannes and Jacob Eppley are called step-sons of George Beck.

The proof of the marriage of the widow, and the names of Johannes and Jacob as the sons of Jacob Eppley, is found in the following entry of those who were confirmed in the New Hanover Church in 1743:

Jacob Epple	}	Jurg Beck's step-sons
Johannes Epple

Numerous other references are found which connect George Beck with Johannes and Jacob Eppley. One is that at the marriage of Johannes he is referred to as George Beck's step-son; another is the baptism of the first child of Jacob Eppley, Jr., in New Hanover, June 15, 1755, who is named George, undoubtedly for George Beck who was the only god-parent.

Eva, the wife of George Beck, was buried at New Hanover, June 20, 1764, and George Beck who was born 12 mo. 1694 was buried May 22, 1775.

If there were any other children of Jacob and Eva Eppley, we have found no indications of same, and therefore the descendants of Jacob Eppley, the Pioneer Ancestor of this family, are traced through his sons, Johannes and Jacob.

Children of Jacob and Eva (.....) Eppley:

1. JOHANNES, b. about 1730; d. bet. 1777-1783. m. February 23, 1752, Trappe Church, Maria Sophia Gmelin, daughter of Matthew.

2. JACOB, b. about 1732; d..... m. May 21, 1754, Anna Eva Eckert, daughter of Philip, of Lancaster.

NOTE:

As these records show that Jacob Eppley was in New Hanover as early as 1718 or 19 and an adult owning property, the thought suggests that Eva may have been a second wife, and Jacob and Johannes his children by the second marriage, as in all probability they were not born until after 1730.

SECOND GENERATION

JACOB EPPELE

└──┬──
JOHANNES EPPELE

Line of Descent Through

JOHANNES EPPLEY

JOHANNES EPPLEY (John Eppley)

Lancaster County, Pa.

JOHANNES EPPLEY, son of Jacob and Eva Eppley, was born in New Hanover about 1730 or earlier. In 1743 he was confirmed in the New Hanover Lutheran Church and is therein mentioned as the step-son of Jurg Beck (George Beck).

In the records his name we find written Eppley, Eppelle, Ebly and Apply. He apparently lived for a time in Chester County and then went to Lancaster where he married. The notice of his marriage reads as follows:

February 23, 1752, Trinity Lutheran Church, Lancaster, Pa.
JOHAN ADAM EBLE, step-son of Jurg Beck, married

MARIA SOPHIA GMELIN, daughter of Matthias Gmelin.
Former Servants of Theobald Endt, now live in Pikestown.

They went to Lancaster County soon after their marriage, as we find their names entered in Trinity Church Records from 1755. Their children were all baptized there.

Although he is called a servant of Theobald Endt, it was probably no more than an apprenticeship, as according to the custom of those days, after the death of his father he was no doubt "bound out" or apprenticed to learn a trade.

He became quite well to do for those days. There are numerous deeds for land bought and sold in his name, and he was appointed Constable in 1766 for Lancaster Township. He was Keeper of a Tavern in Lancaster at the time of his death, which occurred between 1777 and 1783, as the following deed signed in 1777 proves him living at that date, and deed of 1783 as deceased at this date. See abstracts as follows:

(Lancaster Sounty Deeds, Vol. R, p. 481)

In an Agreement dated October 29, 1777, John Eppley's name is written in the one paper, Epeley, Eppely and Epple. This is the last entry in his name. The following proves his death:

DEED

March 3, 1783.

JOHN EPPLEY, of Borough of Lancaster, Lancaster County, Pa., yeoman, and Catharine his wife, and SOPHIA EPPLEY, Relict of John Eppley, late of Boro of

(Lancaster Co. Deeds, Vol. X, p. 92)

SOPHIA EPPLEY removed to Cumberland County probably with her son John Eppley and in 1799 a deed places her in Allen Township in that county, but she must have taken possession of the following property in Newberry Township, York County, and here she resided at the time of her death.

John Starr. Cont. One hundred and fifty acres and three quarters and allowonces,.....etc.,

(York County Deed, Vol. 22, p. 159)

Sophia Eppley died in the late part of December of 1799 or early in January of 1800. Her Will in which she is called Sophia Appley, of Newberry Township, York County, Pa., was dated December 21, 1799, and probated January 15, 1800, in which she leaves everything to her son John to use during his life, and to go to his children when the youngest reaches full age. Elizabeth, his wife, in case of his death, to enjoy the same. The Executors, son John Appley and John Dare. (York County Deeds, Vol. K, p. 129).

The following children of Johannes and Sophia Eppley were baptized in Trinity Lutheran Church, Lancaster, Pa.

1. JOHANNES, b. November 4, 1755; d.....1826.
m. 1st, in or before 1780, Catharine..... m. 2nd,.....
Elizabeth Dare, daughter of John and Elizabeth (Windler) Dare.
2. Elizabeth, b. March 5, 1758.
3. Michael, b. August 21, 1759.
4. Catharine, b. March 9, 1763.

The last three undoubtedly all died young, as there is no further data of them and at the time of the father's death, Johannes (Jr.) is named the only heir with his mother, Sophia Eppley.

THIRD GENERATION

JACOB

JOHANNES EPPLEE

JOHANNES
1755-1825

Catharine.....
2nd, Elizabeth 1767-1832

JOHANNES EPPLEY (Jr.) (John Epply or Eppley), the only son of Johannes and Sophia Eppley, was born in Lancaster County, November 4, 1755, and baptized in the Lutheran Church in Lancaster, November 16. Here he lived until young manhood. He was a saddler by trade.

In 1776, he enlisted at Lancaster in the Company of Captain Dehoff, in regiment commanded by Col. Atlee for the term of one year and nine months, and served in the same company more than one year when he was taken prisoner at Fort Washington. He was in the battle of Fort Washington and Long Island. When he was taken prisoner he was kept for eight or nine weeks in the Sugar House in New York, and was then liberated on parole.

In 1783, in deed, John Eppley, as he signs his name and as it is written by this time, has wife Catharine. Her parents' name is unknown. They were married about 1779 or 1780, as we find a son Johannes, 3rd, born April 15, 1781, to Johannes and Catharine, and a daughter in 1783. He married before 1799, Elizabeth Dare (Derr), daughter of John and Elizabeth Derr of Fairview Township, York County, Pa. This would explain his removal to York County; at what date before 1799 that he removed from Lancaster we cannot say, but there is no doubt he remained there the remainder of his life. He is referred to as John Eppley of Fairview (formerly a part of Newberry) Township in his application for a pension for his services in the Revolution in 1819. In a second paper dated 1820 he is residing in Cumberland County. Probably due to his age also he complained of being very lame; he was no longer able to work the farm. In March 14, 1826, Administration is granted on his estate to his widow, Elizabeth Eppley, and David Fetrow. He is referred to as formerly of Fairview.

In his papers of 1820 he says he is then 65 years of age, his wife Elizabeth 53 years, his daughter Sophia 15 years and his son David about eight years of age. These were probably living with him at this date. He also names his two eldest sons as John aged 30 and Emanuel 21 years, who were Weavers by trade. These four named are the only ones mentioned. We are able to give a full list of all his children through the information in the papers settling the estate of his mother, Sophia Eppley.

April 1, 1827, after the death of John Eppley, his widow Elizabeth and his children as the heirs of Sophia Eppley, made an agreement in which they agree that all of the children of John Eppley shall share alike in the grandmother's estate, those who were born after she made her Will, equally with the rest and ask for a division of the estate. This was signed by:—

Elizabeth Eppley, widow of John Eppley (Jr.)

Christian Stouffer, in right of his wife, Elizabeth.

Michael Eppley, by his atty., Christian Stouffer,

George Dare, assignee of Jacob Eppley

James Shaffer, in right of his wife Martha

Emanuel Eppley

Thomas Metzger, guardian of Emanuel Lowman, minor son of Marie Eppley

Sophia Eppley

On June 12, 1829, the following report is made by the Referees appointed to make division:

SOPHIA EPPLEY'S ESTATE

June 12, 1829.

Report of Referees:

Sophia Eppley, late of Newberry (now Fairview) Township, the partition of the Lands, plantation, etc., as devised to the children of her son John, now deceased, situated in Fairview Township, Cont. One hundred and sixty three acres.....

No. 1. To MANUEL EPPLEY.....16 acres, including the Mansion house, barn and other buildings.....under and subject nevertheless to the following privileges to be rendered and yielded to Elizabeth the widow of the said John Eppley during her life, which said privileges we do allot and assign.....to wit. the small house she now lives in, the patch before the door for a garden, ground sufficient to plant three bushel of potatoes, the fruit of four rows of apple trees at south end of orchard, the small stable above the large garden, half of the spring house and privilege of the spring, said Emanuel to find and deliver to said Elizabeth sufficient of firewood and each year during the aforesaid term pay her Six Dollars.

No. 2.Containing twenty one acres and nineteen perches to Emanuel Lowman, etc.

No. 3.Containing fourteen acres and twenty perches to DAVID EPPLEY.

No. 4.Containing fourteen acres and eighty-four perches, to Christian Stouffer in right of his wife, ELIZABETH (Eppley).

No. 5.Containing twenty-five acres and ninety-two perches.....to Michael Eppley with the appurtenances.

No. 6.Containing twenty-two acres and one hundred and thirty-five perches to Solomon Gordas, assignee of JOHN EPPLEY.

No. 7.Containing twenty acres and one hundred and sixteen perches to Sophia Eppley

No. 8.Containing thirteen acres and fifty-three perches to George Derr, assignee of JACOB EPPLEY.

No. 9.Containing twelve acres and one hundred and fifty-five perches to James Schaffer by right of Martha, his wife.

(York Co. Deeds, Vol. 3—K, p. 305-308)

This gives us the full list of the children of John Eppley. Elizabeth, no doubt, is the mother of all the children, as Catharine, the first wife, probably died about 1783, and as neither of her children are mentioned in any way they no doubt died in infancy. Another thing helping to hold this is the fact that John Eppley (3rd), son of John Eppley who is herein mentioned with the children is not Johannes, 3rd, born in 1783, as his birth according to his father's statement (if correct) was in 1790, so the following list is compiled from the data used in Agreement, Will, Deeds, etc., and the arrangement of children may not be correct as to line of births, but we believe it very nearly so and as correct as possible lacking the birth records:

GENERATION 4

Children of John Eppley and wife Catharine:

1. Johannes, b. April 15, 1781.
2. Catharine, bpt. March 23, 1783.
(Believe both died in infancy)

Children of John Eppley and wife (Elizabeth ?)

1. John, b.....1790 (?)
2. Elizabeth, m. Christian Stouffer.
3. Martha, b..... d..... m. James Shaffer

4. Marie, b..... d. before 1827, in Baltimore, Md.
m.....Lowman, and had a son named Emanuel.
5. Emanuel, b.....1799; d. Adm. in 1834. m. Esther

6. Michael, b..... d.....
7. Jacob, b..... d..... m. Margaret.....
b. about 1805; d. January 23, 1849.
8. Sophia, b..... d. June 10, 1889.
9. David, b. about 1812.

Elizabeth (Derr) Eppley, wife of John Eppley, Jr., was born in 1767 and died in 1832. That they were married in or before 1799 is proved by the Will of Sophia Eppley which is dated December 21 of that year, and that she was the daughter of John and Elizabeth (Weidler) Derr, who was a daughter of Michael Weidler is found in the following Wills and Deed, abstract as follows:
Abstract of the Will of

ELIZABETH DERR, Fairview Township, York County, Pa.,

SECOND GENERATION

Line of Descent Through

JACOB EPPLY, JR.

(Jacob Eppeli)

of

Newberry Township, York County, Pa.

Homestead of Jacob Epple, Hanover Township, Montgomery County, Pa.

JACOB EPPLEY, sometimes written Epple, son of Jacob and Eva (.....) Eppley, was born about 1732, in Philadelphia County. The first reference we find of him is like that of his brother Johannes Eppley, in New Hanover, when they were both confirmed in the New Hanover Lutheran Church and are referred to as the step-sons of Jurg Beck. This was in 1743.

July 4, 1753, Elizabeth Diehl sold to Jacob Epple, 85 acres of land in Hanover Township.

May 21, 1754, Jacob Epple, son of deceased Jacob Epple, married Anna Eva Eckert, daughter of Philip of Lancaster. They were married by the Rev. John Waldsehundt, pastor of the Lutheran Church at New Holland in Lancaster County, Pa. They remained in Hanover and Jacob continued action in the Church. Jacob Eppeli signed numerous petitions, etc., in a clear handwriting and the births of their children are recorded up to 1761. In 1765 a daughter was buried aged two years, and in 1766 a son who was young was buried. Any children born after 1761 were probably baptized somewhere else.

In the minutes of the New Hanover Church May 29, 1765 he is named one of the overseers for the building. His name was written Jacob Ebli and in 1766 he signs a petition for the building of a new church — he signs Jacob Eppele. Trying to anglicise the name accounts for the different spellings.

The Burial Record is very defective and very few deaths are recorded and appear there. In the Baptismal list some places the paper has fallen away with age and names appear only in part, so one can readily see why it is so difficult to trace family history. Many of the tomb stones have also fallen to pieces and been removed; but all have been copied and the records which are alphabetically arranged are in the Pennsylvania Historical Society, Philadelphia, Pa. Each graveyard or cemetery is kept separately—Our Eppeleys would be found in the records of the New Hanover—Lutheran Church.

This is the oldest German Lutheran Congregation in America. Services were held as early as 1703.

In a footnote p-8 of "The Old Trappe Church" by Dr. Kretzman, we find the following;— The first German Lutheran Church in America was built at New Hanover (The Swamp) prior to 1719. Another log church was built there in 1721. A third begun in 1741 and completed in 1747, was superseded in 1768 by the present fine stone Church.

It is a gray stone building with brown stone trimmings, 67 x 46 feet. The walls are very heavy, thirty inches and over in thickness.

The zeal and industry of those devoted people must have been great. They were building for ages and centuries to come.

The second church was provided with a bell and seems also to have had an organ. The ringing of the bell was to invite worshippers to the house of God. It was installed with the special proviso that, "The bell was to be rung for them and their descendants on the day of their marriage and on the day of their death, if they die as christians."

The corner stone of the present building was laid June 25, 1767. It was dedicated by the assembled Synod Nov. 6, 1768.

The church at first had but few arrangements for the comfort of worshippers, except benches or pews. It had a brick floor and was without stoves. It is therefore not strange to find that F. A. C. Muhlenberg in his diary tells us that, "The cold in the church was almost unendurable."

In 1811 two stoves were installed and remained in use until 1858.

April 22, 1826 at a congregational meeting held in the school house it was decided to remodel the church:—

- 1st. To take up the brick and lay a board floor.
- 2nd. That the windows be changed.
- 3rd. That the wood work be re-painted and new doors put in.

On the cornestone we find:—

Michael Stofflet

M. M. A. D. 1767.

(M. M. means master mason)

A rectangular brown sandstone is placed above the keystone in the arch of the doorway on which are engraved the name of the building committee:—

Adam Wartman

Jacob Ebli

Mathias Reichert als

Baubern

$17

67

On the lower left hand corner of the stone is this mark S. It is the mark of the master mason. After the mason had laid the section of the wall the master mason would come and, if the walls were well laid, if it were plumb, he would carve into the section of the wall his sign of approval. In this instance it is carved into the stone with the names of the building committee.

You will notice in the picture a white marble stone above the rectangular sandstone. Its inscription is:—

Built 1767

Remodeled 1867.

Soon after this Jacob Eppler begins to sell his property, and later we find him in York County, Penna.

In 1769, he sells 63 acres and 18 perches of the land he had purchased of Elizabeth Diehl to John Schneider. This land as he had purchased it bordered the New Hanover Church property.

Jacob Epple and wife, in February of 1769, conveyed to the trustees of the Lutheran Congregation of New Hanover two tracts of land. The first of them, 21 acres and 142 perches, bordered on the road leading to Pottsgrove. It was part of the Soanes' tract of 7500 acres, of which Preston conveyed November 1749, 85 acres to Elizabeth Diehl who conveyed the same to Jacob Epple in 1753. The other tract consisted of five acres and adjoined the church land at the northeast corner and was 22 by 40 perches. On the former of these tracts the Lutheran pasonage was located until it was sold to Mr. Brendlinger. (Perk. Reg., Vol. VII—3, p. 74)

Powell, in his "History of York County", writes:

"The first settlers here were Quakers. They came as early as 1734 and obtained warrants for lands along a winding stream since known as Bennett Run..... Not long after the first settlers, arrived. They were followed by English speaking people, among them were the Kirks, Rankins, Huttons, Garrilsons, Neb-ringers, EPPLEYS, Prowells, Millers, Hammonds, and others."

And the following Warrants and Deeds prove JACOB EPPLEY there early. The first, dated June 26, 1764, ... Jacob Appley received a Warrant for a Grant of Land of One-hundred and thirty (130) acres called "Christiana" situated in Condorus Township, York Co., Pa., this was surveyed 11 day 11 mo. 1776, (see copy, page 31) in this his name is written Appley and Eppley.

A Draught or A Tract of Land situated in Codoras Township, York County — Surveyed for JACOB APPLEY, Assignee of Christian Zimmerman in Pursuance of a Warrant for 50a dated the 26th day of June 1764. Surveyed the 11th day of 11 mo. 1766.

(Surveys, Harrisburg, Pa. Vol. C. 65, p. 55)

Situated in Codorus township in York County, surveyed the 12th day of the 10th mo. 1774, for Jacob Eppley in pursuance of a warrant for 50 acres dated the 15th day of June 1774.

(Surveys, Harrisburg, Pa., Vol. 665, p. 54)

A Draught of a Tract of Land Situated in Codorus Township York County being Composed of three Tracts which were Surveyed and returned. The first for George Healy on Warrant dated the 26th day of June 1764 the Second for Jacob Appley or Jacob Eppley on Warrant dated the same day, and the Third for said Eppley on Warrant dated the 15th day of June 1774. And now a Request of said Eppley (the present owner) taken from William Mathews' Record of Surveys and Added together the 27th day of 2nd mo. 1789. Containing 293 acres and 24 perches and allowances.

(Surveys, Harrisburg, Pa. Vol. b. 15, p. 119)

So there is not doubt that Jacob Epplee or Eppley, as it is later written, was one of the early settlers in York County. He is referred to once as a chair-maker.

WAR RECORD

The name of Jacob Epple appears in the Company of Captain George Hoover, 1776; reference: Pennsylvania Archives, Sixth Series, Volume 2, page 609; also in the History of York Co., by George Prowell in Volume I, page 264. This company was recruited in Codorous Township.

All descendants through this line are eligible to membership in The Colonial Dames, Daughters of the American Revolution and Sons of the Revolution.

The following children were born to Jacob and Eva (Eckert) Eppley:

1. GEORGE EPPLEY, b. May 26, 1755; d.....179(7)?
m. Agnes Zimmerman.
2. Anna Marie Eppley, b. September 27, 1756.
3. John Eppley, b. January 14, 1759.
4. Rosian Margaretha Eppley, b. February 2, 1761.
5. JACOB EPPLEY, b..... d..... m. 1st.

This list of children was taken from the Hanover Records.

GEORGE EPPLEY (1755—1797)

of

Cumberland County, Pa.

GENERATION 3

GEORGE EPPLEY, born in Philadelphia County, May 26, 1755, son of Jacob Eppley and wife Eva (Eckert) was raised in Newberry Township and resided there until after his marriage to Nancy Zimmerman, daughter of Jacob Zimmerman of Mt. Rock, York Co., Pa., (see Zimmerman sketch) which took place about 1782. He went into Cumberland County and settled in Lower Allen Township where his death occurred about 1797.

In the Orphans Court for Cumbeland County, Pa., held May 9th, 1797.

The Petition of Agnes Epele, mother and next of kin of Jacob, George, Samuel, Mary and Nancy Epele, minor orphan children of George Epele deceased, under the age of fourteen years, for a guardian.

Englehart Wormley was appointed guardian for their person and estate.

(Cumberland Co., Pa. O. C. Docket, Vol. 3, p. 220)

This is the only record on which Mrs. Eppley's name appears as Agnes, on all other records it is written Ann or Nancy.

George Eppley's death occurred in 1797. The date of the death of Ann, his wife, is unknown or anything in regards to her after his death. They may have been buried in the burying ground of the old Poplar Church, near Wormleysburg in Cumberland County, but a visit to the grounds proved fruitless, as the place is in ruins, stones broken and destroyed. Among some old records of this church we found numerous mentionings of the name of Eppley, but no death or burial record of George or Ann Eppley.

Name: George Epple

County: Philadelphia City.

Record: Revolutionary War

The name George Epple appears as a First Lieutenant upon the muster roll of Captain George Honey's Company. The Northern District of the Philadelphia City Guards, commanded by Lewis Nicola, Town Major of the City of Philadelphia. Militia of the City of Philadelphia, War of the Revolution.

This muster roll is not dated.

All descendants through this line are eligible to enter the Daughters of the American Revolution or the Sons of the Revolution.

The following list of the children is taken from the Baptismal records of old Peace Church, near Shiremanstown, Pa.

COLONEL CONRAD WEISER

The connection of the WEISER Family with the EPPLEYS

Compiled by Mrs. James Newton Nelson

Chiefly from

“THE WEISER FAMILY”

By Dr. Henry Melchior Muhlenberg Richards, of Lebanon, Pa.
Vol. 32, Pennsylvania-German Society Proceedings,

and

“CONRAD WEISER AND HIS MEMORIAL PARK”

By Rev. P. C. Croll, D. D., of Womelsdorf, Penn'a.

A noted writer has said that CONRAD WEISER was the pivotal man who determined the course of our country's development when it hung in the fate-fraught balance of the French and Indian War, and by his influence swung the scales in favor of Anglo-Saxon versus Latin civilization.

This war between England and France was carried from Europe to these American Colonies, and here the aims and issues were for possession of these colonies. Had France succeeded, it would have colonized with its stock of inhabitants, institutions and principles, which would have fastened upon their development the Latin type. But Weiser by his wise diplomacy and with the authority of the Provincial Government, shrewdly won over the great Federation of Indian Tribes known as the Six Nations to the side of England and held them loyal to its policy, and thus made possible England's victory in this gigantic and bloody struggle and helped to stamp the Anglo-Saxon type of enlightened civilization upon the growing colonies and the future nation for all time to come.

George Washington, standing at the grave of this great leader on November 14, 1793, declared in a tribute of high esteem, “Posterity cannot forget his services.”

Born in 1696 in the village of Astaet, in Herrenberg, Wurttemberg, Germany, he came, in 1710 with his father, John Conrad Weiser, (his mother being deceased) and seven other children, to America — after several months spent in London — to land assigned the group of refugees in New York Province by Queen Anne. The ravaging of the Palatinate by Louis XIV had left them destitute, though his father's property, including fields, meadows, vineyards and gardens, was worth 675 gulden, a large sum in that day.

A chief of the Maqua nation, Quaynant (or Quagnant) visited the family and, taking a fancy to Conrad, then about 14 years of age, arranged for the lad to come and live with him to learn the language, and hunting and trapping, where he stayed about eight months. He gained a valuable knowledge of the Maqua language and was much in demand as an interpreter.

There were troubles about the land, and his father, one of the deputies (all refugees having become British subjects before leaving London), went with several others to England to obtain a grant from King George I. He remained some years, returning in November 1723 partially successful; patents were given for land in the Maqua country, but none on the river, as the people hoped. They therefore scattered.

In 1723 many of them came into Pennsylvania and formed the Tulpehocken settlement. CONRAD WEISER came to this settlement in 1729, having married in 1720 Anna Eve Feck, daughter of Peter Feck, one of the original immigrants who came to New York Province with the Weisers, whose Will is on record in Philadelphia. Four children were born at Schoharie, N. Y. — Philip, Anna Madlina, Maria (Anna Maria) who married the Rev. Henry Melchior Muhlenberg (who later came to be known as the "patriarch of the Lutheran Church of America") and Frederick, this writer's ancestor, who married Amelia Zeller, a grand-daughter of Lady Clothilde de Valois Zeller. (Nine other children were born in Pennsylvania.)

As soon as Weiser arrived with his family, he identified himself with the Lutheran congregation, already organized and the first edifice erected; there were roads and clearings, a school and rude artisan establishments. His stone house, still standing, dates from 1730.

The original tracts of land consisted of about 1000 acres, and these were cleared as rapidly as needed. The homestead was located by a spring near the roadway. So he literally lived by the side of the road and became a friend to men. He saw the red men go by in their roving and the white settlers in their neighborhood traffic, and he was able to converse with the savages in their tongue, and the German neighbors in theirs, and the English provincial officials, surveyors and map-makers, in theirs. For a period of about fifteen years previous, he had been closely associated with the Mohawk Indians and from them learned their language and became familiar with Indian habits and customs.

He served Pennsylvania, Maryland, New York and Virginia Colonies, making scores of long and hazardous journeys in all seasons of the year before highways had been built through the wildernesses. He visited Indian camps and capitals from Onondaga, N. Y., to the forks of the Ohio and the mountains and central towns of Virginia. Here he sat in their councils and negotiated treaty after treaty, now for land purchases, now in the interest of peace and safety. It was largely he who made possible and efficient the missionary efforts of the Moravians, Spangenberg and Zeisberger, whom he accompanied in 1738 in their journeys, as he did Zinzendorf in 1742. He taught them the Mohawk language; he was their shield, their propitiating herald in their toils, dangers and exposures.

His entire record was ever above taint and reproach, and has been written in numerous histories and biographies as well as in the Colonial Records and the Pennsylvania Archives.

Our Country owes to this great man a debt that can never be paid.

On June 4, 1923, the Conrad Weiser Memorial Park Association was incorporated for the purpose "of purchasing, improving and preserving lands formerly occupied by CONRAD WEISER in the Township of Heidelberg, County of Berks, and state of Pennsylvania, adjoining the Borough of Womelsdorf, Penn'a, from 1730 to 1760, the year of his death, and for the purpose of maintaining them as a public memorial park for all time to come." This tract includes about twenty acres, containing the Conrad Weiser House and the Burial Plot.

The House was restored to its original state and equipped with furnishings of the Colonial period, and a bronze tablet placed on the building. The grounds are well laid out, with walks and attractive plantings, and a flag pole erected. On a slight rise of the land stands a beautiful Barre granite monument to the memory of this great pioneer.

THE WEISER CONNECTION with the EPPLEY FAMILY is in the marriage of Mary Magdalene Womelsdorf (grand-daughter of Frederick Weiser, son of CONRAD WEISER) to JACOB EPPLEY, son of George Eppley (Revolution) see page 42.

4. Frederick Weiser, b. Dec. 24, 1728, d. Nov. 1773, bur.; m. Dec. 3, 1751 Amelia Zeller (see Zeller chart) grand-daughter of Lady Clothilde de Valois Zeller and Jacques Zeller.

LADY CLOTHILDE de VALOIS ZELLER

By Mr. Charles Fisher Snyder — a descendant — 1019 Susquehanna Ave., Sunbury, Pa. By permission of the Secretary of the Northumberland County Historical Society. Copied from pages 61-62-63, Northumberland County Historical Society Proceedings, Vol. VII, 1935)

This brave Huguenot woman carried on after her husband had died in England in 1709 or enroute to America, yet undaunted she continued her journey with her two sons, first locating with the Palatines at Schoharie, N. Y., and then continuing the quest for a home until finally settling in 1726 at Millbach, now Lebanon County, where she lived many years, being past eighty (80) years of age at her death, a personage long remembered in her family, a tradition of dignity, of authority and exalted backgrounds, the Countess Clothilde de Valois, wife of Jacques de Sellaire. Her son Henry built a substantial stone building along Mill Creek, Pa., over a spring of purest water in 1745, which during the French and Indian War became a frontier refuge, often referred to as Fort Zeller probably the only remaining structure connected with that struggle in eastern Pennsylvania, if we except the magazine here at Fort Augusta.

As one stands on the threshold of this quaint structure, we note name cut over the doorway, not Jean Henri Sellaire but Heinrich Zeller, and feel a link with the distant past, for here Clothilde de Valois born in France before the Revocation of the Edict of Nantes, spent her last years. Her grandson Peter, was a member of Washington's Staff while a great grandson Peter Zeller, born in 1745, came to what is now Union County, and is buried at Mifflinburg, Pa. With our local history as well as that of all eastern Pennsylvania, her name is to be found among the fearless pioneers of the frontier.

Charlotte Eppley, first child of Jacob and Mary Magdalene (Womelsdorf) Eppley. b. Oct. 25, 1809 near Shiremanstown, Cumberland County, Pa. d. April 10, 1885, bur. Uniontown, Pa. m. Sept. 30, 1832 to John Jordan Moffitt who was b. July 23, 1811 at Lawrenceville, N. J. son of Samuel Kennedy and Mary (Lewis) Moffitt and a grandson of Alexander and Catherine (Kennedy) Moffitt of Scotland. In 1837 Rev. and Mrs. John Jordan Moffitt moved to Canton, Ohio where he was licensed to preach in the Methodist Episcopal Church and was admitted to the Traveling connection in the Pittsburgh, Pa., Annual Conference, in 1839. The Rev. Robert H. Miller in an obituary notice of Dr. Moffitt says: "By diligence and fidelity he rose to positions of honor and extended influence in the church." He filled the office of Presiding Elder for ten years and was a delegate to the General Conference which was held at Indianapolis, Indiana, in 1856, and was elected at the last session as a member of the Court of Appeals. In his death the Conference has lost one of her most manly, wise and devoted members and the community a former pastor, beloved and revered, who will be remembered as a good man and a preacher of righteousness." Dr. Moffitt was retired from active work as a pastor in the year 1880 at the age of 68 years. He received the honorary degree of Doctor of Divinity from Scio College, Scio, Ohio in 1872. From the effects of a fall on the ice Dec. 26, 1880, Dr. Moffitt died Jan. 15, 1881, buried Uniontown, Pennsylvania.

John Wesley Moffitt was educated as a dentist and was outstanding in his profession. The following gives a brief account of his activities — for many years he practiced his profession in Harrisburg, Penn'a., starting before the Civil War. He then moved to Philadelphia, Pa., where he was in charge of porcelain instruction in the Philadelphia Dental College. He made his own porcelain, which was so good that he had to ship it to many parts of the world, even to some of the German Cities where porcelain-ware is made. He showed the Twentieth Century people in York how to put up their furnace and also the Consolidated Dental Company of New York and S. S. White in Philadelphia Penn'a. In the early stages of porcelain work he was a pioneer in the making and grinding of porcelain inlays and he practically perfected the formula himself. He was also very skillful in carving and baking the fillings.

THE PANAMA CANAL
CANAL ZONE
ACCOUNTING DEPARTMENT

Balboa Height
Canal Zone
May 20, 1935.

To Mrs. Fishburn,
Mechanicsburg, Pa.
U. S. A.

No doubt in your capacity as Historian of the Eppley Clan you have ferreted out a good many branches of the family. Unexpectedly and without investigation I to have found out something about them that it would not have been possible to discover. I believe, in any other manner or part of the world. I will relate some of my experiences down here in the Panama Canal Zone. Whether or not you know it we have as sort of a slogan down here, or rather we call the Canal Zone "The Crossroads of the World." Well, in my case several things or experiences have occurred to prove that but I'll just tell you what the name "Eppley" has brought forth.

June 3, 1907, when I landed in the Canal Zone I was sent to Empire along with a lot of other rookies for distribution to various posts. After getting my papers filled out and awaiting assignment, the man who afterwards became my superior officer said to me "So you're a Pennsylvania Dutchman." Continuing he said, "It may surprise you to know it but I may be a shoestring relation of yours. I am from Peru, Indiana, and there are a lot of Eppley's around that part of the country, in fact my grandmother's name was Eppley." You can imagine how good that sounded to me — a strange man in a strange land far away from home and friends. My assignment sent me to Gatun, then a town in making, without electric lights, screened houses, filtered water and Malaria, Black water fever and Yellow fever being the rule rather than the exception. One day after I had been there about a month, one of the carpenter foreman engaged in the erection of houses, said to me, "Well, you should prove your relationship with the Eppley's from the Middle West—Iowa in particular. They have a big chain of hotels scattered all over the West and have lots of money.

My first experience had to do with the clergy. During the Construction Days the Isthmian Canal Commission, as our governing body was then called, had a Chaplain stationed at each of the large towns. Being more or less of a regular attendant at Divine Services whenever I could, I became acquainted with most of the Chaplains. One of them was Rev. Carl H. Elliott. He later left the Zone and accepted the pastorate of a Presbyterian Church, Salem, Oregon. We corresponded for some time and in his letters he mentioned the fact that there were several Eppley families around Salem and wondered if they might be any kin of mine. Incidentally another chaplain, Rev. Decker, was an Episcopalian, and claimed York as his home. As soon as he found out my name was Eppley he wanted to know if I belonged to that bunch—if I was a Pennsylvania Dutchman. When I told him that I was and that I was from Marysville, Pa., he immediately began to tell me of all the Eppleys he knew around that section of the State. About 1910 while doing some investigating at the Pedro Miguel Locksite I became acquainted with a steam shovel engineer named Hatfield. In the course of our conversation he said to me "The Eppley's are rather thick around my part of the country—West Fairview, Pa. He said he knew a lot of Eppley's in Harrisburg, Marysville, and Cumberland Valley. I found out that he knew a number of my brothers and cousins. He went so far as to claim relationship with my aunt by marriage—Mrs. Elmira Eppley, wife of my uncle Dr. George Eppley. My last experience was about a year ago, Captain R. J. Imperatori, in charge of a Battery Coast Artillery at Fort Randolph, had occasion to call me in connection with some of his commissary accounts. My usual method of answering when my phone rings is to say, "Eppley speaking". After we had transacted our business he said, "Do you by any chance happen to know or be one of the Newport Eppley's". I immediately jumped to the conclusion that he meant Newport, Pennsylvania, but he said he meant Newport, Rhode Island. When I told him that as far as I knew there was no kinship he said, "You had better scrape up some sort of relationship for they have oodles and oodles of money." Now that I have given my experience with colonies and clans as I have learned them down here I will try and give you some personal information. Graduated from Marysville High School in 1895, and Valedictorian of the class. Was then employed by the Northern Central (now Baltimore Division of the Pennsylvania Railroad) in Marysville, Pa., Shops as assistant shop clerk. In 1899 transferred to Mt. Vernon Shops, Baltimore, Md. In 1900 was employed as Time-keeper for H. S. Karbuagh, Contractor in Summerhill, Pa. In April 1900 started to work for what then Pennsylvania Steel Co., Steelton, Pa., as Time-keeper. For three and a half years I wandered over Eastern United States with Bridge building gangs. In 1904 returned to Marysville, Pa., as Yardmasters Clerk. In 1907 accepted a position as Time-keeper Canal Zone where I have since resided. In 1915 was transferred into the Accounting Department as a clerk and have been promoted to the Section Head of the Commissary Accounts Receivable Section.

Since my sixteenth birthday I have been a member of Washington Camp No. 218 P. O. S. of A. Marysville, Pa. Also a member of Evergreen Lodge No. 590 I. O. O. F., and the Isthmian Rebekah Lodge No. 1, Balboa. My Masonic career started in Marysville, Pa., 1900 became a member of Perry Lodge No. 458; transferred from the Perry Lodge and became a charter member of Chagree being elected as its first Senior Warden. In 1923 became its second Worshipful Master. Am a member of both Rites of the Order, York and Scottish, — Past Commander of Canal Commandery No. 1, Knights Templar; Past Illustrious Master Canal Council No. 1 and Select Masters and an officer in Canal Zone Chapter No. 1 Royal Arch Masons. In Scottish Rites. Am a member of all bodies in Canal Zone;—Orator Lodge of Perfection and Preceptor in the Consistory. Honored by the Supreme Council to post of Knights Commander of the Court of Honor. In other orders in some degree related to the Masons—Past Patron of Orchid Chapter, No. 1, Order Eastern Star, Order of DeMolays; Charter member with Mrs. Eppley the governing board of Balboa Assembly No. 1, Order of Rainbow for Girls, and a member of Abou Saad Temple, Mystic Shrine.

While in Marysville was a member of the Bethany United Evangelical Church but here am a member of the Balboa Union Church—Chairman of the Board of Deacons and Ushers. The Church has been organized and controlled entirely by employees of the Panama Canal. The membership represents nineteen different Protestant denominations.

ZIMMERMAN — EPPLEY

The following data on the Zimmerman—Eppley line is taken from some papers in the Shettle Bible. It was written by Jacob Epply, born in 1784, a grandson of Jacob Zimmerman. At the time he wrote it he was quite an old gentleman. Unfortunately, the record was not dated.

JACOB ZIMMERMAN

JACOB ZIMMERMAN came from Amsterdam, Holland, about the year of 1730 or 1932. He was the father of three sons and five daughters:

Deposition of Jacob Eppley, son of George and Nancy (Zimmerman) Eppley.

My grandfather, Jacob Zimmerman, came from Holland. His children were William, Samuel, Jacob, Rachael, Susan, Elizabeth, Nancy and Mary. Cannot tell who William was married to. Samuel died single. Jacob was married to a Hawley. Rachel was married to George Richarrt or Richard. Susan married Case-berry. Elizabeth married Eisaberger and Nancy married George Eppley who was my father.

The following named person are the children of George and Nancy Eppley, formerly named Zimmerman, Jacob, George, Samuel, Nancy and Mary.

Jacob married Mary Magdalene Womelsdorf

George married Susan Brookhart

Samuel died single

Mary married Jacob Bear

Nancy married Christian Grubb

After the death of Christian Grubb and Mary Bear, Nancy (Grubb) married Jacob Bear, who had been the husband of her sister Mary.

My grandfather, Jacob Zimmerman, came to this country when young, a long time before the Revolutionary War, and as near as I can tell settled in part of Lancaster County, Pa., which may now be a part of Dauphin County, Pa. Afterwards moved into York County, Pa., near the border of Cumberland County. Jacob Zimmerman afterwards called Carpenter, settled at or near Mount Rock, York County, between 1800 and 1816.

(The wife of Jacob Zimmerman was Metzger, a sister of Von Theobald Metzger of Holland, and a story at one time was that there was a fortune in Holland that on several occasions created some expectation among prospective heirs. This Deposition was probably made at one of these times.)

The writers have made no attempt to work out the Zimmerman line.

SMITH—EPPLEY

(Copied from Harrisburg Independent, Thursday, Dec. 10, 1885.)

"The Fashionable Wedding solemnized last evening. A very brilliant affair, which joins for life a Harrisburg Belle and a Baltimore Gentleman. A church crowded with guests. Decidedly the most elaborate and grandly fashionable wedding that has occurred in this city for many years was solemnized at the Fourth Street Lutheran Church. The bride was Miss Annie Eppley; has long been a reigning belle and the social position and wealth of the family made a sight of the nuptial arrangements a matter devoutly to be wished for. The floral decorations were of the most elaborate description and presented at first sight a huge mountain of green, running up twenty-five feet in height, entirely obscuring the pulpit desk and furniture. Tropical plants and vines were there in profusion. Standing in front of this mass of greens was an arch nine feet high, made up of smilax, and beautified by calla lillies and white japonicas. From the center of the arch was an immense marriage bell, white, and on either side worked in flowers were the initials of the families to be united, "S.—E.". Instead of the usual ribbon dividing the reserved space for special guests from the remainder of the auditorium was a heavy cable of smilax and rosebuds; altogether the decorations were superb and reflected great credit to Schmidt & Son. It was nine o'clock before the wedding party arrived, when immediately there was a flutter of excitement all over the church. The entree was a decided innovation. Up the left hand aisle first came the ushers — Messrs. Frank Foulke, John Roberts, B. Snowden all of Baltimore, Frank Tenny of Steelton, William Fahnestock of Pittsburgh, Fred M. Ott of this city. Following these came the bridesmaids — (1) Miss J. Winnifred Smith, sister of the groom of Westminster, Md., attired in a Nile green silk, elaborately trimmed. She carried a bouquet of Perle de Jardins. (2) Miss H. Ott, of this city, who wore a pink silk, with crystal trimmings. She carried a bouquet of Marschalneills. (3) Miss Clara Simon of this city dressed in blue silk with brocaded velvet trimmings, carrying a bouquet of tea roses. (4) Miss Ada McComas of Hagerstown, Md., attired in a white silk with rich lace trimmings. She carried a bouquet of Jacquemots. When the above mentioned persons had reached the center of the church, the bride leaning on the arm of her father, entered by the right hand door. The pages and maids of honor came first, the former being Master Charles Studebaker and Master John Weiss, both dressed in black velvet suits, while the latter were Misses Ida Fahnestock of Pittsburgh and Miss Julia McKillip of Westminster, Md. Both wore white silks and carried baskets of flowers. The bride looked her best, attired in a heavy white ottoman silk, en train, low neck and short sleeves. The front was arrayed with pearl trimmings. She also wore a long bridal veil which completely enveloped her person. She looked most beautiful and as she moved up the aisle, received nothing but looks of admiration. As the bride and her father reached the altar, they were met by the groom, Mr. Charles E. Smith of Baltimore, Md., and his best man, Mr. Lyman Meekin of Baltimore, both of whom entered by the pulpit door. The beautiful marriage ceremony of the Lutheran Church was then gone through with, after which the bridal party left by the north aisle. Preceding Mr. & Mrs. Smith were the maids of honor, who scattered roses before the happy couple as they marched out. The same order of grandeur and elegance was carried out at the Eppley home on State Street. The parlors were a mass of flowers while the orchestra was concealed by Japanese screens and floral designs. The banquet was one of the most elaborate character, having been prepared by Messrs. James Russ and Weaver and Hubley. The newly married couple left sometime after mid-night for an extended tour east, after which they will return to Baltimore, where the groom is engaged in the banking business. They resided at 2025 Maryland Ave., Baltimore, Md., for a number of years.

The following is a copy of the letter his mother received after his death:

Headquarters 163rd Infantry

Dear Mrs. Eppley,

October 17, 1918

We extend to you from across the waters our deepest sympathy in your great sacrifice of sorrow for the death of your son Harold Eppley, Private Headquarters Co., 163rd Infantry. Harold died at Montrichard, France, October 13, 1918 — 6:00 a. m. of Influenza. He did not linger long with us after he was taken sick, only a few days. Every comfort convenient was provided for him. The nurses were kind and good, and looked after his needs with the care and concern of a mother. The boys who were with him in the Ward helping to care for the patients were ever with him to answer any call. We try to do our best for the boys when they are sick and helpless. One great advantage in the American Army — we have a great corp of Doctors and Nurses.

He was buried with full Military Honors October 14, 1918 in the American Cemetery, Noyes, Loir at Cher, France. At the head of his grave is a white cross marked: Harold Eppley, Pvt. Hdqrs. Co. 163 Inf. grave 320. He is not alone, for other soldiers like Harold have laid down their lives in France for this righteous cause. May God give us all strength to suffer and sacrifice, and patience to bear the strain till we have gained a glorious victory, and may the presence of the Master bring to you a joy in the midst of your sorrow, a joy that can only come to a mother who places herself in His hands and accepts with a gracious spirit His Divine Will. We are one great heart in our struggle, the pain of one is felt by all. The fellowship of war gives us a common life. We will serve and suffer together to the end.

With deep sympathy,

W. Pippy

Chaplain 163 Infantry.

OTHER EPPLEY FAMILIES

While collecting the records for the JACOB EPPLEY FAMILY GENEALOGY, much valuable material was gathered, some of which evidently does not belong to this family or at least could not be connected.. However, much of it undoubtedly has some family connection and we believe it is too valuable not to be of some service to others who might be interested in working out their lines. We have included, therefore, what has seemed most important, but due to the very limited time allotted for the preparation and publication of this material, no effort has been made to carry down the lines further than the second and third generation.

The following somewhat incomplete notes, therefore, are being submitted in the hope that they may be of help in the further clearing up of different branches of the family and establishing some of the connections which have herein been left unfinished or not carried out.

L. GERTRUDE FRYBURG.

FAMILY No. 2

ANDREAS EPPLE

16.... to 1749

(Epplee, Epple, Ebli, Epple, Epple and Eppel)

ANDREAS EPPLE, the Pioneer Ancestor of this branch of the family, arrived in Philadelphia, October 5, 1737, in Ship Billinder Townshend, Thomas Thompson, Master, from Amsterdam, but last from Cowes. Among the Palatines imported, we find on the captain's Ship List of men the name ANDREAS APPLE.

At the Court House of Philadelphia the same date, the Palatines did take and subscribe the Oaths to the Government, and among them was ANDREAS EPPLÉ. He signs his name in German as Andreas Epplé, we find by consulting the original lists, although this name in the first Listing is translated Andrew Apple. That is an error and afterwards in the records we find the name (when written by others) spelled Andrew Apple or Epplé, as well as the various other spellings, but in the few places in which we have been able to find his signing his own name, he writes it as stated above, in the German language, and as Andreas Epplé.

Andreas Epplé was the head of the second branch of the family and the second of the name to arrive in America. There are many things to lead up to believe there is a relationship between Andreas and Jacob. He settled in Salford Township, Philadelphia County. His wife, Dorothea, came with him no doubt and possibly his daughter Maria Margaretha. The Ship gives no listings of the women, therefore does not name his wife and daughter. His death occurred in 1743. His Will was dated April 15, 1743 in Salford Township and probated August 27, 1743. He makes provision for his daughter Eva Kat Epplé who was left behind in Germany, at Aurbach in the Marginsate of Durlach, with one named Hans George Reyling. He names his son Johannes Epplé and wife Dorothea Epplé as administrators.

JOHANNES EPPLY, his son, is probably the Hans Eppli who arrived in Philadelphia, February 7, 1738—39, who took Oath to the Government the same day. He signs his name in very good hand-writing Hans Eppli in German, although the captain's list has it Hans Apely.

GEORGE EPPLÉ, who arrived November 25, 1740, is a second son. The Ship Loyal Judith arrived in Philadelphia this date with Lovell Paynter, Master, and among the Palatines thereon is listed on the captain's list YERICK (George) EPLY, aged 25 years. The same day they took the Oath of Allegiance to the Government, and on this list we find the name JOHAN JERG EPPLÉ and by consulting the original Listings we find again the writing in German.

GEORGE EPPLÉ was born in 1715 according to the age given on the Ship List. On his arrival he no doubt joined his father for a short time in Salford. We find no record of him other than in March 1745 in the Trap Church he married Maria Juliana Manzer, no doubt the daughter of Hans George Mayntzer who came on the same ship with his father Andreas Epplé in 1737. He soon after comes to the City of Philadelphia and becomes an Innkeeper, where apparently all their children are born, as we find their baptisms all recorded in the St. Michael and Zions Church, as follows:

Children of Hans Jurg and Maria Juliana Eppele:

1. JOHANNAS ANDREAS, b. November 30, 1745; d. Aug.

26, 1814. m. 1st, November 23, 1775 to Maria Meyer, m. 2nd June 2, 1791 in Zion Lutheran Church to Frances (Fricker) Brocius, widow of Nicholas. m. 3rd, April 22, 1793 to Margaret Ferguson.

2. Maria Margretha, b. May 3, 1747, d. Jan. 11, 1832. m. Sept. 17, 1778 to Leonard Jacoby, 1740—1822, who served in the Revolutionary War.

3. Barbara, b. Dec. 8, 1748, d....., bur.....

4. Maria Catharine, b. May 18, 1750, d....., bur.....

5. HENRY, b.....1753 (baptism not found), d. April 3, 1809, bur.....

George Eppele, in 1763, in deed is called Inn Keeper, and Eppeley's Tavern was referred to on several occasions. This Inn was no doubt the same one kept by his son Henry Eppeley during the Revolutionary period, on Race Street. It was a commodious and fashionable resort: an assembly was held there and many political conferences took place at Eppele's Inn.

MARIA MARGARETHA EPPELE, who married in the New Hanover Lutheran Church on November 10, 1747, John Jacob Loeser, was no doubt a daughter of Andreas and Dorothea Eppele and brought to this country when she was a child.

THIRD GENERATION

JOHANNES ANDREAS EPPELE (Andrew Eppele), son of George and Maria Juliana, was born in Philadelphia, November 30, 1745. He died at the age of 69, August 26, 1814, and is buried at St. John's Church. Andrew Eppele, as he was known, was an influential merchant, in Philadelphia during the Revolution. He was appointed February 15, 1777, Paymaster of the Eleventh Pennsylvania Regiment. In the records of the Pennsylvania Archives (Vol. III, 5th Series, p. 599), the name is spelled Andrew Eppele. The second record of the same appointment reads (p. 591) Andrew Eppele, and a third record (p. 610) reads:

"Hugh Craig, paymaster, never joined the regiment, Andrew Eppele appointed paymaster, April 14, 1777, resigned March 1, 1778."

His Commission which the writer had the pleasure of examining is owned and treasured by one of his descendants, Miss Elizabeth Lybrant Millholland, of Reading, Berks County, Pa. It is framed and hangs on the wall beneath a large painting of Andrew Eppele. The Commission is dated—

In Congress, February 15, 1777.

Andrew Eppele, gentleman, as paymaster of Eleventh Pennsylvania Regiment. (signed by)

John Hancock,
President.

November 23, 1773, Andrew Eppele married Maria Meyer (Meier), a sister of Hannah, the wife of Colonel Peter Mullenberg, and the daughter of Matthias and Esther Meyer, of Philadelphia. They had the following children:

1. Peter M., b.1777, d. Dec. 12, 1819, aged 37 years, bur.....
2. Andrew, Jr., b.....1780, d. Jan. 26, 1825, aged 45 years, bur.....
3. Esther, b....., d....., bur.....
4. Mary, b....., d....., bur.....

His wife Maria (Meyer) Epple died at the age of fifty-one years on the 8th of October (year torn), probably 1789.

In the Will of Esther Meyer, widow of Matthias Meyer, of Philadelphia, dated November 1, 1793, probated May 13, 1801, she mentions her daughter Hannah, wife of Gen. John Peter Mullenburg, and her son-in-law Andrew Epple, and her grand children: Esther, Andrew, Pete and Mary Epple, children of daughter Mary, deceased.

A Deed dated February 8, 1809, of the heirs of Mary, late wife of Andrew Eppley, is signed by the same Esther, Andrew, Peter and Mary Eppley.

The following short sketch was copied from the Pennsylvania Magazine:

ANDREW EPPLE, a merchant, was born in 1745, and was appointed Paymaster of the Eleventh Pennsylvania Regiment on February 15, 1777.....which office he resigned on March 1, 1778. In August, 1780, he was a member of the Third Company, Third Battalion, Colonel William Will; and from 1784 to 1787, was a private in Colonel Will's Fourth Battalion. In 1787, he lived in South Mulberry Ward. On October 31, 1789, he endorsed the application of General Daniel Broadhead for the office of Surveyor General.

On Thursday, June 2nd, 1791, he was married (2nd) in Zion's Church, to Mrs. Francesca Brocius, widow of Nicholas Brocius (died February 20, 1766), late of the borough of Reading. At this time he was living at No. 68 North Third Street. On April 22, 1793, he married Margaret Ferguson. On November 5, 1796, he dissolved his partnership with William Banks, broker. At this time he was living at No. 85 Chestnut Street, and the next year at 81 Chestnut Street. He died on August 26, 1814, aged 95 years.

(Pennsylvania Magazine, Vol. 46, p. 75)

All descendants through Andrew Epple (Johannes Andreas) are entitled to join the Societies of the Sons of American Revolution (S. A. R.) or the Daughters of the American Revolution (D. A. R.) or any other Society in which the Ancestor is required to have Revolutionary Service.

Captain HENRY EPPLE was born in Philadelphia, in 1753, and was the son of George and Maria Juliana, and died in Philadelphia, April 3rd, 1809.

There has been no effort made to follow down this line further, but the following interesting account of Epple's Inn is found in the History of Philadelphia, by Scharf & Wescott (Vol. II, p. 983) and gives much information of him and his services in the Revolution.

All descendants through this line are entitled to join and of the Societies that require Revolutionary Service, such as the Daughters of American Revolution (D. A. R.) and the Sons of the American Revolution (S. A. R.).

EPPLE'S INN

Henry Epple's Inn or Tavern, No. 117 Sassafras (Race) Street, north side above Third Street (now No. 313), known as "The Sign of the Rainbow" was a fashionable resort during the Revolutionary period, where gatherings of various sorts, political and social, took place. An Assembly dance was given here which was graced by Mrs. Bingham's presence. Washington was an occasional guest at Epple's Inn, as was Louis Philippe d'Orleans, when he lived in Philadelphia, and also Cornplanter, the Indian. The Pennsylvania Society of the Cincinnati met here in 1787.....

HENRY EPPLÉ, grandson of ANDREW EPPLÉ (died in 1743) was commissioned Ensign in the City Battalion in October, 1775. He was made Ensign (or Second Lieutenant) in the Second Pennsylvania Battalion on January 5, 1776, and was promoted to First Lieutenant on November 11, 1776; and became first Lieutenant in the Third Battalion on April 1, 1777; was promoted to Captain on June 6, 1777; and resigned April 8, 1778. He was a member of the Patriotic Association of 1778. On December 7, 1778, he was married, in Zion Lutheran Church, to BARBARA BURGHALTER..... In 1793, he is recorded as an "innkeeper and keeper of horses and chairs". He retired from the Inn in 1794, and died in Philadelphia, April 3, 1809.

FAMILY No. 3

JOHN EPPLÉ

of Manheim, Yory County, Pa.
(Eply, Applee, Apple, etc.)

JOHN EPPLÉ, about 1720 or earlier. Where or who his parents were we do not know, nor the date of his arrival or on what Ship or from whence. The first and earliest date that we have of him is a grant of 221 acres of land situated in Manheim Township, York County, and surveyed June 16, 1767, by two Orders dated October 3rd, 1766 (No. 1408 & 1409) in which his name is written John Applee, and the tract of land, owing to its peculiar shape, was called "Many Corners". He signed his name by making his mark H E to several deeds. His wife was Rosina and she also signed by her mark.

p. 98 Vol. B. 6 Land Off.
Harrisburg, Pa.

p. 99 for Surv. of 1808

By a Deed dated November 5, 1783, John Epplee and wife Rosina conveys to their son Hans Peter Epplee, eighty acres, a part of the above land and buildings. In this Deed, John Epplee is called a Book Binder.

His death occurred about 1795. A deed was signed by he and his wife Rosina April 29, 1790. His Will was signed August 31, 1789, and probated November 30, 1795, in which he gives all to his wife Rosina, excepting to his Eldest son Matthias Eply, five shillings and his youngest son Hans Pett Eply, five shillings. He also mentions his Plantation adjoining the lands of Samuel Wildisin, George Apel and others. The witnesses to this will were George Aple, Samuel Wildisin, and Henry Danner. It is signed by his mark, and is on file in York County.

Apparently the death of Rosina his wife occurred close to his, as we find Administration on Estate of Rosina Eply was granted November 19, 1795, to Peter Eply, and the Will of John Eppley was probated November 30, 1795.

John and Rosina Eply had apparently only two children:

1. Matthew, b....., d....., bur..... m.
..... and had a son.

JOHN EPLY, b. July 25, 1765, in York Co., d. 1841, in Tennessee. Was a soldier in the Revolutionary War.

2. Hans Pete, b....., d....., bur.....
m. Margaretha Baughman, daughter of Francis & Barbara Baughman of York County, Pa.

The following Abstract, taken from papers on file in Washington, D. C., proves the Services of John Eply and his parentage.

Application for Pension

July 9, 1834, Warren County, Tennessee.

John Eply, of Pennsylvania, aged 63 years..... Declares he entered the services under the following named Officers (Utz) in the Spring of 1782 when about 16 or 17 years old, he entered as a Substitute for his father who was Drafted.....does not remember the precise day, but it was in the Spring.....His father Matthias Eply was Drafted for term of Six Months.....at the time he was a resident of York County, Pa.....The said John Epley when 27 years of age went to Lincoln County, North Carolina.

FAMILY No. 4

APPEL — EPPEY FAMILY OF YORK COUNTY, PA.

(Apfel, Apple, Apel, Eple)

October 3rd, 1764, the Ship "King of Prussia" arrived in Philadelphia and among the passengers listed we find WENDEL APFEL and GEORGE (X) APPEL. These two we find appearing a little later in York County. A sister Margaret comes with them and marries Samuel Wildasin. Probably other members of their family came also.

WENDEL APPLE (as his name is written) settled in Menallen Township. His wife was Mary Margaret. His death occurred at some date before June 12th, 1782, as on this date Mary Margaret Apple, his widow, and John Sharp, Administrators of Wendel Apple's estate, appeared in Orphans Court, showing they had a balance on hand of L251.73.11p.

March 27, 1783, she asked for Guardians to be appointed to take care of Paul Appel aged four years, Philip Appel aged three years, and John Appel aged one year and upwards.

Mary Margaret Appel married secondly, Solt, proved as follows:

"16th May, 1786, Mary Solt, late widow of Wendel Appel of Menallen Township, deceased, prayed that a Guardian be appointed for Philip Appel age 6 and Johan Wendel Appel aged 4 years and upward.

No other children are named, but there may be another. There are some things that would lead us to think that Heinrich Eple (Family No. 5) may belong here.

Children of Wendel and Mary Margaret Appel:

1. Paul Appel, b.....1779, d....., bur.....
2. Philip Appel, b.....1781, d....., bur.....
3. Johan Wendel Appel, b.....1782, d....., bur.....

(This may not be a complete list of their children.)

GEORGE APPEL, brother of Wendel, settled in Manheim Township, adjoining property granted to John Applee or Epplee..

His death occurred in 1790. He had a wife Ann, but no children. His Will proves the relationship of George, Wendel and Margaret Appel. See abstract as follows:

GEORGE APFEL, Manheim Township, York County, Pa.
signed May 22, 1790, proved June 4, 1790.
Names wife Anne, provided for

(York County Wills, Vol. H, p. 126)

MARGARET APPEL, sister of Wendel and George, marries Samuel Wildasin (written Wildisin, Wildysin), who has grant of land adjoining George Apple's and John Applee's lands. Little is known other than that Samuel Wildesin died at some date before 1820, when Margaret Wildesin, Widow of Samuel of Heidelberg Township, made her Will in August 23, 1820, and died before January 1, 1821, when it was probated, and in which she mentions her only daughter Philepena, single woman, and her beloved son George Wildesin.

(There are several things that lead us to believe that John Appplee (or Epplee) may belong to this group. His name does not appear on the Ship Listings, but he appears with them in York County and all take out adjoining lands and we find them associated frequently on Wills and Deeds.)

FAMILY No. 6

JACOB EPPELE

(Epply)

1741 — 1820

JACOB EPPELE of Codorus Township, York County, Pa., was born April 1741, and died April 9, 1820, according to his tomb stone inscription. Who his parents were, where born or when he came to this country, we have not been able to find so far.

He appears in Codorus Township early. His first land grant is of June 26, 1764, second June 15, 1774. He owned considerable land in the township and settled thereon and remained there until the time of his death. His name he signed in German and in this line we find the name written by himself as Epppele, and by others Epply, Eppely and Eppley.

His wife was named Elizabeth. We find her joining in singing of deeds by making her mark. She is named in his Will and survived her husband several years. Her parents' name is unknown, but she was born May 24, 1755 and died March 24, 1835, according to the record of the tombstone. They are both buried in the old Codorus Burying Ground.

The Will of Jacob Epppele was signed October 27, 1817, and probated June 5, 1820, in which he names his wife Elizabeth, his plantation, and sons Jacob, John, Frederick and Peter, and daughters.

Jacob and Elizabeth (.....) Epppele had the following children:

1. Jacob, Jr., b. about 1770, or earlier. Resided in Codorus Township. m..... They had a son.

1. John, b. July 3, 1795; d. Dec. 30, 1836.

(Probably others)

2. Johann, b....., d....., Adm. Feb. 13, 1837.

3. Frederick, b....., d....., Will probated Jan. 22, 1849. m. Christina

4. Peter

5. Daughter, m. John Zeigler.

6. Catharine, m. Samuel Lawson.

7. Anna Maria, m..... Klingfelter and had following children:

1. Christina, m..... Smith

2. Jacob

3. Elizabeth

(These may not be arranged correctly according to birth)

Jacob, Frederick and John spelled their name generally Eppley.

MARTIN EPPELY

MARTIN EPPELE or EPPELY is one of the early Pioneers of whom we know very little. He arrived in the Ship Duke of Wirtenberg, the 16th October, 1751, Capt. Montpelier, Commander, from Rotterdam and Cowes in England. Among the List we find...

Martin (X) Ebbly. (Penna. German Pioneers, Vol. I, p. 476)

In 1755, we find him in the Moselem Lutheran Church in Berks County, and on the Tax List of 1758, we find him in Greenwich Township, Berks County, entered as Martin Eply, single.

November 26, 1761, Bapt. Eva Eppely, aged 5 weeks. Parents Martin and Eva Barb, then of Antolouni. The Sponsor, Christian Maneschmidt, Mar. Eva Leib(in).

(Bapt. of Rev. Daniel Schamacher, 1754—1774, p. 192)

Further than this we know nothing of this early Pioneer, but no doubt there are a number of them bearing the name who can claim him as their ancestor.

JACOB EPLY — A Revolutionary Soldier
(Killed by the Indians in 1779)

Of this JACOB EPLY there is very little known. Whether he was of Pennsylvania or New York we do not know. The application for Pension was made from New York. The following abstract taken from a paper on file in the Revolutionary Pension Department in Washington, D. C., gives a few important facts which may assist someone in clearing up this line and his services:

Papers W. 13941.

Application for Widow's Pension

Elizabeth Sutes, Montgomery County, New York, widow of Peter Sutes, Sergeant in the Revolutionary War.....further claims that in the year of 1779, sometime in April she met with the loss of her first husband by name JACOB EPLY, who was killed by the Indians. She was married to Jacob Eply in the winter of 1769. Records of Dutch Church of Stoutaraben, where will appear Jacob Eply married Elizabeth Louck, daughter of William Louck (Sept. 19).

(Nothing further on this on file. The applicant then about 90 years of age probably died soon after, and as she was applying for the Pension through her second husband, Peter Sutes, there was no further reference to Jacob Eply.)

EPPLEY CLAN SONG

Tune—"Maryland, My Maryland."

All Hail, All Hail, the Eppley Clan
From "1700" strong we stand,
Its members all are good and true,
From Generations long we grew.
Then shout for joy, ye members all,
For here we stand for one great call;
And when our time at last does come
May God our Father take us home.

In days of old when Knights were bold
The Eppley Clan was born we're told;
And history tells us up to date
The Clan has well deserved its fate.
Then come ye members, with me raise
The song of love and cheer and praise;
Each loyal to the Clan will be,
Forever till eternity.

REUNION POEM

Some folks we meet most every day
When walking on the street,
Its nothing quite unusual
So doesn't seem a treat,
But those we see just once a year
When families get together
Are different 'cause we drive for miles
Regardless of the weather.

We call them by their first names,
Which really isn't bold
And used to visit in their homes
Before so very old.
There's Mary, Lou and Annie
And George with Bill and Joe,
We try to greet each one of them
For cousins you should know.

Each year, the number changes
Some members, we have lost
While others come with brand new Babes
But think how much they cost.
The day is warm and balmy
And we gather in a Park
To talk about a family Tree
And then rush home at dark,
Thinking 'bout our folks years back
Till I really do believe
An Eppley ate the apple-core
That Adam took from Eve.

Margaret Krueger Eppley.
